General Comments

When I arrived, the children were having a snack. After snack, they did circle time and the educator talked about the days of the week, they sang and danced.

The other group was also having a snack when I arrived.

The children got ready and went outside around 11 a.m. Children were encouraged to get ready independently and were provided with time and space to do so. Educators were observed assisting children when required.

The playground was inspected and is in compliance with Regulations. The staff were actively engaged with the children outside, playing with them, they did special activities with them such as playing with the bubble machines, and they also went on a Bear hunt while listening to the "We're Going on a Bear Hunt song.

Staff were observed speaking to the children at their level, validating the children's feelings and consoling them when needed. Staff were also seen using positive child guidance such as encouragements, positive reinforcement and gentle reminders when needed.

Children and staff came back inside around 12:15, children were asked to wash their hands, and they had lunch. During lunch, staff were seen helping children when needed. Some children napped and others played quietly.

Everything is in compliance; I recommend for renewal.
