General Comments

The ELC home is bright and clean and I was screened when I arrived. The children's work is displayed on the walls and programming with the NB Curriculum is evident. The educator displayed positive child guidance techniques such as gentle reminders, encouragement, appropriate use of humor, and offering choices. She participated in the activities with the children, actively listened to what the children were saying, and tended to their needs quickly. The outdoor play area is child-friendly and spacious and the children seemed to enjoy their time outside. Everything is in compliance and I recommend for licencing.
