| General Comments Monitoring report performed. no compliances to address. Upon arrival children were listening to the operator read a story. Children repeated words as the Operator read the story. It is obvious this is a popular book as the children are familiar with it - Chicka Chicka Boom Boom. Administrative records were reviewed and attendance, fire drills, infant toddler records, cleaning, napping schedules are documented regularly. Just a kind reminder to date your Return After Exclusion forms. TY Lots of wonderful Art work and children's programming posted. Appropriate child guidance observed and Operator has a wonderful rapport and lots of conversation between her and the children. The Operator permits the children choices and she was observed assisting children with dressing for outdoor play when needed. Children were observed in outdoor play today during my visit. Loving the puddles of water. Snack today - was a choice between 2 cereals, blueberries and milk. |
