General Comments

The Quality Assurance Monitor is on site for a monitoring inspection. The child to staff ratio was respected during the inspection.

The followings element was observed:

- Storage space
- Daily activities
- Safety
- If all required documents were posted in a visible and prominent place in the facility

The Quality Assurance Monitor observed a wall that was painted with six different colors. The operator and children explained the process and how everybody picked out a color. The daily activities are purposely planned in advance and documented and respond to the capabilities, needs and interests of each child, passions, strengths and abilities.

The Quality Assurance Monitor observed the children playing in the indoor play area. The QAM also observed the children transitioning to snack time (lunch box). The QAM observed the children updating the new month, season and counting different ways with their fingers and songs. The operator is engaging the children to play musical instruments while she sings. Positive interactions were observed between the children and the operator.
