- Educators were engaged with children during activities.
- Fire drills, outdoor checklist and first aid supplies checks are done monthly.
- Learning stories posted highlights children's recent learning and interests. Children have been working on a community project, drawing a map of where they are living.
- I can see into the room an increase in literacy, children have been playing with letters. A challenge has been given to the educator to increase numeracy.
- Children's guidance is done a respectful and positive way.
- Indoor space provides a variety of materials that are at the children level, the zones are welcoming and inviting for children to play and create.

Observations:

During the visit, children were into free play. A group of kids were playing with a big playhouse made of cardboard, others were playing with Play-Doh and others were building a road with wooden blocks. They didn't go outside since it was raining. After free play children washed their hands, grab their lunch box and ate their lunch.
