General Comments Children and educators engaged in play in the indoor environment during today's monitoring inspection. Infant educators were observed to engage with children in a warm and caring manner. Building positive and thoughtful relationships with infants supports their well-being. The children in the toddler rooms were engaged in play with their friends and educators. Reading books, mark making, playing with balls. Invitations set up invite children to engage and the materials available reflect children's current interests. Ensure staff who require the Intro to ECE online course are registered when hired. As per the Operator Manual section 5.1- Operators register each new educator as soon as they are hired... When confirmation of enrolment is received, place a copy in the staff file.
