General Comments
The children were outside playing when I arrived. Six children were present today and they are very independent. They were experimenting with flour, water, shaving cream and chalk to make different "desserts" and recipes. The children enjoy the gym section and especially the gymnastics mat. The plan for today was save the oceans and several of the children had made up a cheer. They had a visual representation of the plastic in the ocean with the animals and a child shared a story from his vacation. One child had created awards for their day.
