General Comments
During my visit, the children were playing inside as it was too hot to go outside today. The children enjoyed messy play today and I saw their messy creations with shaving cream and other materials. They appeared to enjoy this activity very much. The children partake in lots of imaginative play. The operator plans activities according to the interests of the children. We discussed her next planned activity of making snow globes as children were expressing interest in doing this. I looked at child and staff files during my visit, as well as administrative files. The child files are very well organized. There are some medicare expiry dates that need to be updated. The staff files contain all necessary information and all checks are up to date. Fire drills have been done monthly with the exception of one month. Please ensure these are completed. Everything seems to be going well.
