General Comments Children observed in play and learning alongside their educator in the preschool room. The environment is well organized with a variety of learning centres and an abundance of materials inviting children's engagement. Educator observed to communicate with children in a very positive manner. Documentation posted in learning environments highlight children's learning and current interests. School Age Room-How do you set up the environment daily to be inviting for the children? Recommendation to reflect on how children in the school-age room can see themselves in their environment; what materials and documentation can be added to support this?
