General Comments

This facility has a purposefully planned and documented program which was verified in each age group served. The program incorporates the interests of the children both indoors and out. Children's learning was visible through their posted work, photographs, portfolios and videos as examples. Licensing observed artwork in the infant room in which the children painted on music sheets to music and also observed videos of children and staff where they were mud sliding in the rain on a hill located in the wooded area behind the facility. Educators are engaged with the children and support their learning by playing and talking to them.

Operator keep files in an organized fashion and all documentation was easily verified by staff for licensing purposes.

Operator asked about keeping financial records at her home. Licensing staff advised that an exemption would be required but that they would have to bring documents to the facility during inspections. Operator stated that they would just have a copy on site.

Licensing staff can recommend facility for licensing.
