General Comments

A renewal inspection occurred today. The children were observed in their indoor environment. The children were observed having healthy morning snacks after properly washing hands. Materials were natural, familiar, real life that represent children's home environments. materials were open-ended and on low open shelving for children to access independently. Operator listened carefully to each child, giving them time to think and express how they feel. Operator was observed asking questions to prompt children to find solutions to answers. All checks were observed and complete. All files were also observed and complete.
