General Comments

Monitoring Inspection:

Children and educator observed engaged in a variety of activities this morning. Children were observed exploring water colour paints, animals, playdoh, different shapes and sizes. Invitations are set-up throughout the environment for children to explore. Books that support the children's current interests have been added to the cozy area from the local library.

Children had been on a rainy walk first thing this morning to the Maple Tree. The children spoke about how the leaves were almost gone on the tree and that they jumped in the leaves.

Children are encouraged by their educator to problem solve and tidy up independently.

Attendance records were observed to be complete.

Monthly fire drills are documented.

Daily outdoor play area checks for hazards are completed and documented.
