General Comments
Monitoring inspection completed today. When QA Monitor arrived in the room, children were getting ready for outdoor play and shared with QAM that they were going for a walk in the rain and to look for puddles.
The indoor environment is set up with materials for children that are easily accessible and allow for them to independently access materials. Children's artwork and documentation of interests and learning were posted. Ensure all documentation is dated to demonstrate that it is current. Invitations set up on the tables for when children returned from outdoors.
Fire drill record and incident logs reviewed and complete.
