General Comments

QAM arrived in the afternoon and observed children in the outdoor learning environment. Educators were supporting and encouraging children to participate in the clean-up process while a clean-up song was played. The outdoor learning environment was observed to be clean, organized, and equipped with materials to support art, dramatic play, building, and music experiences.

Following outdoor play, children lined up and transitioned indoors for lunch. Upon entering the facility, educators divided the children into groups and supported appropriate handwashing practices prior to the meal. Children then sat at tables and ate lunch provided by the facility. Educators remained engaged with the children throughout the routine.

The educator shared that the children have been participating in a project focused on "Hometown Heroes," exploring various occupations and community roles. The educator reported that firefighters visited the program earlier that day with a fire truck and provided children with an opportunity to learn about their role in the community and explore the vehicle.

The child-to-staff ratio, fire drill records, and parent information board were reviewed and found to be accurate and up to date.
