General Comments Monitoring report performed. Covid guidelines are being followed. The operator has 4 children today. All children having a nap and 2 woke shortly after I arrived. The operator has a wonderful rapport with the children. Lots of interaction. This is book week, so the children have brought in books from home and each day they will read and talk about them. Today's book is a feeling type book, so the operator has made a board with different materials for children to touch. The operator is currently taking her ECE online and is enjoying the program of studies. Administrative records were reviewed and operator is tracking attendance, completing fire drills and outdoor maintenance checklist is completed monthly. Once all children woke, they were involved in a variety of age appropriate activities - fishing activity, dot markers, and listened to one of the books the children brought in. Children touched the different surfaces and learned what surfaces felt - soft, bumpy, crumpled, rough etc. Children were observed playing outdoors during my visit also.
