General Comments

On the morning of the renewal inspection the children were having Kid's Choice Day. Flexibility was provided in the routine for children to come inside and play with their Monster Trucks before lunch. The table was used as a ramp and the operator took interest in their play and extended the game when she suggested the children use a bucket as a target.

The indoor environment was pleasant, inviting and numerous examples of colorful documentation are displayed. Materials and toys were plentiful and organized.

The operator interacted with the children in a kind and loving manner and demonstrated respectful communication when helping children navigate sharing materials and deciding on the rules for a game.

Positive affirmations are included in the daily routine. The operator has used the mirror in the bathroom to display positive affirmations and reads them out as children wash their hands.

All files were organized and easily verified. All records are complete and up to date.

Licensing staff recommends for renewal.
