General Comments
Purpose of visit was a regular monitoring inspection. Lindsay Lewis, Quality Assurance Monitor was also present for this inspection. Upon arrival two children were getting up from their nap while two older children were engaged in a quiet activity. Purposely planned programming was observed as the educator documented their intention for the day on a white board. Children were given the opportunity to pick their activities. The home was clean, well organized and contained a variety of developmentally appropriate materials that allowed for children to experience and explore many interests. All materials were available at the children's level for them to select independently. Long term projects were observed, children were currently learning about flowers in their project corner. Art activities were displayed in frames and pictures of the process of their art was also displayed. Postive behaviour guidance was observed at all times. Educator was also observed providing support to children of all developmental stages and abilities.
