General Comments

Monitoring Inspection:

Children and educators observed during outdoor play, lunch time and indoor play. Each environment is set up with a variety of materials for the children to explore. The children's current interests (nature, animals, survival skills and shadow puppets) are evident through materials added to the environments. A map of the Kingston Peninsula and it's landmarks is displayed for children. One group is currently working on a cookbook with their family recipes, each child will receive a copy to take home.
