General Comments Upon arrival, I looked at ratio and every room had met requirements. Each room has been keeping the attendance sheets up to date, indicating reasons for absence. They were also keeping daily information sheets up to date when necessary. Each classroom has a variety of materials for the children to play with and children's work is displayed on the walls. They also have a spacious and well-maintained playground. The children played outside this morning before coming in for lunch and nap. All nap mats are of necessary thickness to meet regulations. The classrooms and washrooms appear to be clean. As discussed, please post diaper changing procedures in each of the children's washrooms. I checked all staff files and they contain all necessary documentation. One employee is taking first aid at the next available course as theirs had recently expired. All checks are up to date and clear. I looked at a sample of the child files and they contain all necessary information as well. I noted positive child guidance techniques by the educators. The educators appeared to be engaged in the activities with the children, sitting on the floor with the children, reading books, comforting children when necessary, setting clear boundaries, and demonstrating patience and calmness. They used positive reinforcement and gentle reminders. On the day of my visit the center appeared to be running very well.
