General Comments
Classrooms were well maintained and clean. Toys and classroom were observed being disinfected during the monitoring inspection. Play materials were developmentally appropriate and easily accessible by the children independently.
Several activities were added to the room such as matching reindeer shapes, a gingerbread house, pin the nose on Rudolph and other program plans.
Infants and two-year-olds engaged in outdoor play and were dressed appropriately for the windy afternoon.
Positive behaviour guidance was observed at all times throughout the inspection.
