General Comments
On the morning of my visit the infants were in the outdoor play space. The other 2 classes were finishing up snack and getting ready for an activity. The 3 year old group were decorating fish for their homemade fishing game. The 2 year old group was learning about the color black and painting a black birds. There were a couple new children at the center and they seemed to be adjusting well in the center. The educators were engaged with the children and were working as a team, communicating with one another.
