General Comments
Children were finishing morning snack and participating in some free play activities when licensing staff arrived. The facility has been freshly painted, giving the center a brighter and cleaner appearance. Notification of illnesses are posted at all entry points. Educators and children have been preparing crafts for Mother's Day. The facility will be having a Mother's Day tea on Friday. Educators were observed sitting on the floor singing and playing with the children as well as digging in the sandbox. The infant's room has bird feeders set up in the window. The children and educators have been keeping track of the different birds that have come to the window. There are pictures of various birds in the window. The two's year-old room has added personalized place mats for the children to use during snack and mealtimes. A new quiet area has been added with comfy chairs and books. The preschool room has been reorganized and items have been removed to allow more defined centers be set up children to learn and explore in. Positive child guidance was noted during the visit.
