General Comments
The Quality Assurance Monitor is on-site to conduct the renewal inspection. The Quality Assurance Monitor is present during outdoor play, lunchtime, and nap time. Children who no longer nap are observed engaging in quiet activities. Staff members are observed singing nursery rhymes during transition periods. The Quality Assurance Monitor also observes two expired medications. A discussion is held with the operator regarding the requirement to return all expired medications to parents and to request updated medications, if needed. During the visit, the ratio is respected.
