General Comments

- Visit done at the establishment in the morning for a monitoring inspection.
- Ratio was respected during the visit.
- The following activities were witnessed during the visit:
2-year-old room: the children were playing amongst themselves. The educator was looking at books and discussing with the children. The educator informed me that she is currently completing her ECE.
3-year-old room: I witnessed creative play. The children were making a soup with the toys.
The educator read a story to the children. After storytime the children choose to paint a picture.
4-year-old room: the educator was having a discussion with the children about keeping our hands to ourselves. The conversation was positive. The children shared their opinions. Educator facilitates children's learning by engaging in play and asking open-end question. I witnessed craft time. The children made handprints and sang songs.
- The facility complies with general health standards under the public health act.
- I observed that the educators used positive child guidance technique, they are respectful to each child rhythm and attentive to their needs.
- A few children's files missing complete medical practitioner information, recommending files be reviewed and this information is added.
- In all rooms evidence of purposeful planning based on children's interest and learning, invitation, photos and learning stories were posted.
- At my departure all groups of children were getting ready to go outside.
- Discussion with the director concerning the children's files, hot beverages, and the winter plan.
