General Comments
A Monitoring Inspection was completed this afternoon. The after schoolers were observed entering the cottage. Hand washing procedures were followed before and after snack. Children were observed drawing, making cards, building, and reading. Educators stated that arts and crafts are one of the children's favorite indoor activities, and that while outside, the children enjoy sliding, climbing, and exploring. Positive child guidance techniques were observed – educators using positive language, educators sitting with the children, and taking part in activities, and educators providing appropriate supervision.
