General Comments The part time group was eating snack when I arrived. Following snack they proceeded to do a "spooky house" craft and then played freely around the room. On top of free play, the educator set up play invitations for the children to participate in should they chose to. These activities included, the creation of a fort to make puzzles in, fall sensory bin, and play dough. The other two groups of children were preparing to go play outside when I arrived. Educators were observed helping the children getting ready but also encouraging them to try and get ready independently. Today was "hot lunch" (chicken fingers and veggies) day for those families who wished to participate.
