General Comments

Upon Licensing Staff arrival, the children were playing with dress up clothes and creating paper painted gemstones. The children sat at an art station to use scissors and the paint. Positive child guidance was observed as the Operator offered a friendly reminder to be careful while using the scissors. Also, the Operator was observed helping the children set up pillows and small mats on the floor for the children to play "the floor is lava". The children enjoyed the music and jumping from spot to spot.

The main playroom is inviting with a large soft area rug, pillows, twinkle lights and artwork. The children's toys and materials were age appropriate, clean and organized. Toys such as books, a play kitchen, dolls, maps, dress up clothes, clay, muffin tins for imaginative baking, a wooden play climber with slide, and a pretend office were set up in tiny stations. Learning stories and children artwork is displayed throughout the room as well as in the children's individual portfolios.

Later in the morning, the Operator and children prepared to head to Odell Park for a story time activity about fairies. The Operator gave the children ample time for the transition and made sure that the children's, snacks and water bottles were packed. Before leaving for the park, the Operator packed the First Aid kit, sunscreen was applied, and they left holding hands.

It was evident through the interactions observed that the Operator holds a strong bond with the children. The home was cozy, and the children were happy. Licensing Staff recommend for renewal.
