General Comments

Licensing Staff arrived at Play With Purpose Childcare to introduce themselves as the new Quality Assurance Monitor and conduct a Monitoring Inspection. Upon arrival, the infants were in the process of waking up nap time. The indoor environment was tidy and welcoming. The posting board was observed in the entrance of the home and contained all required documents.

There were two infants in attendance today. The Operator stated they both had just started a few weeks ago. The infants appeared to be comfortable with the Operator and the environment, smiling and babbling as they got ready for afternoon snack. Proper diaper changing procedures were observed before the infants sat in their highchairs for snack time. The Operator sat with the infants as they ate, offering assistance as needed and encouraging them to have sips of water. Once snack time was over, the Operator led Licensing Staff to the main play area. The room offered a variety of age-appropriate play materials and resources, all of which were easily accessible. The Operator sat with the infants, dancing and singing different songs. One infant grabbed a board book, "There's a Wocket in my Pocket". The infants laughed and babbled as they listened to the story.

Later in the afternoon the Operator led Licensing Staff to another room for gross motor activities. The Operator stated the infants love sliding on their belly down foam mats and climbing back to the top. A bin of musical instruments was placed on the ground for the infants to freely explore. Only positive child guidance was observed during today's Monitoring Inspection. The Operator was attentive to the needs of the infants and was actively engaged in their play throughout the afternoon.
