General Comments

Licensing staff arrived to conduct a monitoring visit. The children went walking on the golf course this morning and were just having their snacks in their highchairs. The home is beautifully set up for the children's use. Then living room bay window looks out on a bird feeder that the children fill with peanuts in the mornings before their outdoor walk. They can watch the birds and squirrels eating from the window comfortably from inside. Today the operator set up their ride on cows on the carpet which the children really liked and then they emptied a basket full of blankets and stuffies on the carpet to play with. The sensory table was full of blocks, and the shelves were open and accessible for the children to choose what they wanted to play with. One child chose metal pans to make music with and after diapering they prepared for nap by picking the books that they wanted to have read to them. The operator settled them into their naps with stories and by darkening the room a bit with curtains.

The child files were complete and the daily information sheets and attendance forms are being completed, the diapering sign is posted, and all administrative tasks are complete and up to date. The operator is very knowledgeable about child development and is pro-active in helping them develop their language skills and in creating an environment in which literacy can flourish. She is also very kind and gentle in her voice and manner with the children.
