General Comments

This was the first monitoring inspection to this new early childhood home. The space is open and inviting. Books are placed throughout the space accessible to children. The educator mentioned some observations she has made of the children's play and plans for further curriculum. This home has a large outdoor space and children are able to enjoy the woods. We discussed designation requirements and I reminded the operator of market fee threshold for children (For rural, infants, full-day $34.00, part-day $20.40 and preschoolers, full-day $29.00, part-day $17.40).
