| General Comments Rooms were well maintained, organized and clean. Materials were appropriate for the age of the children present and provided for a variety of play based experiences. Children engaged with art activities and sensory play. The rooms contained documentation of learning and many visuals for the children. Visuals may also be utilized as redirection for child who is trying to leave the room throughout the day. If this behaviour continues the operator can reach out to the inclusion program for further support. The transition to outdoor play was smooth and all children were engaged during outdoor play. Operator will provide confirmation of completed staff files once the required documentation has been obtained. |
