General Comments When I entered the classroom, most of the children were sitting on the sofas and the educator and them were engaged in a conversation about ice cream and toppings. Following that the children had lunch. The educators helped the children with their lunch, heated them and opened containers if needed. The children went outside around 1:40. Different material is available to them such has blocks, a playhouse, kitchen, dolls, trucks, and books. The educators were engaged with the children. Positive child guidance was observed such has positive reinforcement when children were observed cleaning up their lunch mess. The educator was heard saying "thank you for cleaning up your mess, good job". Everything is in compliance; I recommend for renewal.
