General Comments

preparing for nap.

Honey Bear Room: The children were observed engaged in a variety of outdoor activities that included coloring, swinging in the hammocks, digging in the sand box, playing soccer, looking for bugs and dancing to music alongside their educator. The educators indicated that the children are currently interested in building blocks, bugs, art and riding the scooters.

Several forms of documentation were visible throughout all rooms, including photographs, learning stories, and children's artwork. The rooms were well organized and inviting, offering a varied supply of age-appropriate materials, books, and toys.

A clearly visible and prominent area was designated for the posting of the facility license, current monitoring reports, and any orders for compliance. Additional documentation reviewed included incident logs, daily attendance records, daily information sheets, five educator files, and records of evacuation and monthly fire drills.
