General Comments
A renewal inspection was conducted today. The children were observed during inside play, snack and going for a walk to the park. The children were observed engaged in creating art, building with magnetic pieces, lego and hanging out with their peers. Discussed with educator and administrator creating a checklist of items to look for to ensure the safety of the children when they utilized Chocolate Park. This was created during inspection and taken with the group when went to the park. The educators were observed speaking kindly and respectfully to the children. The children appeared happy and content in their environments and with their educators. Children's art and learning are displayed on the walls and the educators have documentation planning activities for the children which is flexible to allow the interest of the children to take priority.
