The school-age children were observed in getting ready for outside play, inside play and afternoon snack. A wide variety of age-appropriate materials were evident in both the preschool and school-age rooms. Educators in the school-age room were observed engaged with the children in their learning, conversations and play. Handwashing was observed occurring numerous times during the inspection. Discussed ensuring that the staff files are onsite at the facility when Educators are covering lunches, breaks, or relief and not at the Early Learning Centre. Educators were observed having positive interactions and speaking kindly and appropriately to the children.
