| General Comments   |
|--|
| A renewal inspection was conducted today. The children were observed during free play, outside time, lunch and rest/quiet time. Children's art is displayed in all rooms depicting their learning. A variety of art materials are available for the children to interact and engage with and create open ended art creations. Children's portfolios have been created for each child for their learning to be documented and shared with parents. Discussed with educators in PreK 1 room arrangement and flow of room to create a more engaging and inviting area and offered suggestions/recommendations on how to achieve this. Positive interactions were observed between the educators and the children in all rooms during inspection. Educators were observed getting down to the level of the children engaged in their conversations and learning. The children were very eager to know who the "new person" was in the centre and were excited to share what they were doing and what they were learning. The children appeared happy and content in their environments and with their educators. |
