General Comments
A Monitoring Inspection was completed this afternoon. Infants - educator was observed playing music for the infants, while another educator changed bums. Educators were observed putting sunscreen on the infants, and the infants and educators were later observed playing outside on the deck. Educator stated that the infants enjoy sliding, and sliding was observed. The twos and threes were already outside at QAM's arrival. Children were observed playing in the sand, playing with Tonka Trucks, and sliding down the slides. The 4/5 and School Aged children were in a combined group this afternoon, due to low numbers. Children were finishing up their snacks and preparing for outside play, at QAM's arrival. All classrooms were observed. Daily written and visual schedules were observed. Well defined learning / play centers were observed, as well as several forms of documentation. The parent board included parent committee information, fire evacuation documents, contact numbers, past inspections, and a special area portraying staff shout outs - for a job well done.
