General Comments

A Monitoring Inspection occurred October 1, 2025

Children were observed engaging in a variety of indoor activities, including building an obstacle course using the newly added soft play climbing blocks, constructing with wooden blocks, playing with the toy tool set, participating in dramatic play in the kitchen area, completing a letter puzzle, and using musical instruments. Additionally, the children were observed eating a snack, with handwashing occurring beforehand.

Materials were varied, age-appropriate, and accessible to the children. Several forms of documentation were visible in the indoor environment, including photographs, as well as both individual and collaborative artwork created by the children.

A clearly visible and prominent area was designated for posting the facility's license and current monitoring reports. Additional documents observed included daily attendance records, daily information sheets, and records of evacuation and monthly fire drills.
