General Comments

Purpose of visit was for regular monitoring inspection. Licensing staff arrived after all school aged children had arrived to the facility. Children were all engaged in several activities throughout the room including arts and crafts, dolls and magnets. Children were given the freedom of bringing materials to different activities areas. Children we able to engage in their activities without interruption which gave them an opportunity to build on their interests and ideas. Educators were observed supporting children throughout their play and helped add materials to their projects. Positive behaviour guidance was observed at all times throughout the inspection.
