General Comments
A Monitoring Inspection was conducted this afternoon. Children were observed inside, during nap, snack, and free play. The older children were on a field trip, to the Rez. Upon entering the facility, children from the 4's room could be heard singing the ABC's, on repeat! Inside their classroom, children were observed singing. Educator was observed sitting at a table, with a face painting option book on display. Children were observed taking turns, having their faces painted. The children in the 2's classroom were napping at QAM's arrival. A couple of the children woke up during the inspection, and they were observed sitting at their table, eating snack, and playing with a Bluey truck and character pieces. Several forms of documentation were observed throughout the facility - learning stories, photos, and children's artwork. Positive child guidance techniques were observed in both rooms - Educators sitting at the children's level, educators offering choices, and educators using positive language. Attendance records were observed and accurate. Parent board was observed and all required documentation was posted. Outdoor environment was observed. Several play / learning materials and equipment were observed.
