General Comments Monitoring report performed. Upon arrival, the operator and children were just returning from the park. Children washed hands and then ate lunch I would strongly recommend that children have their own towel or paper towel to use to dry hands after washing with soap and water. This will prevent transmission of germs and spread of disease. Appropriate child guidance was observed. The Operator was observed speaking to the children with kindness and also telling them they are doing really good. Administrative records were reviewed - attendance, fire drills, incident reports. These are being tracked appropriately. The operator is using the incident report document located in the appendix and this is fine, however for non reportable please maintain these logs in chronological order. The operator inquired about protective surfacing for her climber in her outdoor play area. Please refer to section 9.3.1; and 9.3.2 for guidance. Surfacing material used must follow the play area equipment as specified by the CSA standard. If you are unable to locate the manual that goes with your play structure, you are required to add minimum protective surfacing for critical height range listed on page 70 in your operator manual.
