General Comments

Monitoring Inspection:

Children and educators observed engaged in a variety of activities this afternoon including painting, art projects, dramatic play and cooperative games. The indoor play area is set-up with a variety of materials and invitations for the children to explore freely. Purposeful planning is evident throughout the school-age environments through documentation and photos.

Each child was greeted and welcomed by their educators when they arrived on the bus.

Handwashing routines were observed at arrival from school and before snack.
Monthly fire drills are documented.
Daily attendance records are accurate and reflect all children present. Child-to-staff ratio was observed to be met during Monitoring Inspection.
