General Comments
Children were outside sliding on the hill when licensing staff arrived. Parent board is up to date with the required documents. Notice of illness forms were posted at the entrance. On the day of the visit, two notices were posted. Indoor play area had a variety of toys and games that area all at the child's level. Children seem comfortable in the environment. Licensing staff recommends the educators organize the bookshelves, making sure the books are neat and stacked properly and that all damaged books are replaced.
