| General Comments   |
| Children were enjoying free play time in the gym when licensing staff arrived. There were a variety of activities for the children to participate in such as hula-hoop, scooter boards, and basketballs. Some children were sitting on the mats chatting with each other. The educators were engaged with the children, participating in the various activities with the children. There is a shared respect between the children and educators. |
