General Comments
Children were getting ready for snack when licensing staff arrived.  On Wednesday's the children and educators have a class meeting. The children sit in a circle and give each other a compliment and discuss any issues that are occurring in the classroom.  The children seem to enjoy the discussion and coming up with solutions for the issues.  After the meeting the children prepared for outdoor playtime.  Positive child guidance was observed during the visit.  There is a mutual respect between the educators and the children.
