They later came indoors and engaged in creating art. The educator was actively discussing and engaging with the children's interests. During the visit, I observed the children washing their hands, eating their lunches provided by parents, diaper changes, tooth brushing, story time, and naptime. During transitions, the educators sang with the children to support smooth routines.</li> <li>- Discussions: A discussion was held with the director regarding the outdoor play area. There is no stationary equipment in the outdoor play space. The director explained her emergency evacuation procedures to me in detail.
