General Comments

The children were playing after getting up from their naps. After some time, each child was asked to go to the washroom and wash up for a snack of blueberry muffins and milk. The children eat at a small table in the kitchen with a space for everyone.
Once snack was served, children played for a while and then got ready to go outside.
The operator spoke kindly to the children and helped them work out disagreements. The operator provided support for risk taking and asked questions to help children problem solve acknowledging children's achievements when they accomplished them. The children were reminded of safety items when needed.
The children use positive language in describing one another and behaviors showing an environment of respect.
