General Comments
A renewal inspection occurred today. Children were observed both indoor and outdoor learning environments. Props and materials were displayed at children's level and can be independently accessed. Invitations were open-ended to provide multiple choices, solutions and possibilities for exploration and investigation. Furnishings and equipment were child size, comfortable and accessible. Documentation is present throughout the entire center and was reflective in children's current interests. All files were observed, organized and complete. All drills and checks were also observed and complete.
