General Comments
Planned programming is evident in the centre. Children's artwork and learning stories are posted on the walls in the facility.
The children spent the morning outside playing in the sandbox, on the slide and in the dirt. The children found a couple of worms in the dirt.
Administrative files were in proper order. All contained the required documents.
Operator will start using the outdoor play space checklist.
Operator is engaged with the children and gives each child individual attention during the activities.
