General Comments The facility was operating very smoothly during the inspection. Educators were engaged with the children and were seen sitting or kneeling when speaking and playing with the children. Curriculum framework is evident throughout the centers as observed by the numerous learning stories, children's artwork posted on the walls; also, the journaling the educators are completing. A routine has been established throughout the facility as witnessed with outdoor play time, lunches and transitions from one activity to another. The children seem happy and comfortable in the environment.
